DESCRIPTION: This intensive course consists of a weekend session that is used to initiate the program. Students will learn the importance of highly productive teams in the modern innovative organization, and will experience how to build a productive team. This will be done through simulations, role-playing and brief case studies. The learning that takes place here will be used and amplified in the students’ future coursework. Another very important part of the weekend is the introduction of the M.B.A. Mentor Program, along with the outstanding individuals who have been selected, and have chosen, to serve as mentors. The conclusion of the weekend will be a casual dinner open to you and your immediate family.
